HIRING/AT WILL EMPLOYMENT

Selection of staff members is based upon the following guidelines: education, skill, experience, and personal attributes of each candidate. Purely personal considerations do not enter into the selection of staff members and the Rochester Public Library does not discriminate in employment opportunities or practices on the basis of race, ethnicity, religion, sex, national origin, age, disability, gender, sexual orientation, marital status, military status, or politics.

With the exception of Pages and seasonal help, job openings will be posted for a minimum of 7 (seven) days after which interviews will be conducted. Searches will remain open until the vacancy is filled. Application forms are available upon request from the Library.

It is the policy of the Rochester Public Library that all employment is on an "at will" basis which allows the employment to be terminated at any time by either the employee or the Library "at will" with or without cause. Nothing in this manual shall be held to convey to any employee a promise or offer of any type of right to continued employment. This is not an employment contract. Any other form of employment must be in writing and approved by the Board of Library Trustees.

All applicable State and Federal Statutes and Regulations will be followed.

Adopted on May 2, 2013 by the RPLD Board of Trustees

1.02

Equal Employment Opportunity

In order to provide equal employment and advancement opportunities to all individuals, employment decisions at the Rochester Public Library will be based on merit, qualifications, and abilities. The Rochester Public Library does not discriminate in employment opportunities or practices on the basis of race, ethnicity, religion, sex, national origin, age, disability, gender, sexual orientation, marital status, military status, or politics.

The Rochester Public Library will make reasonable accommodations for qualified individuals with known disabilities unless doing so would result in an undue hardship. This policy governs all disabilities unless doing so would result in an undue hardship. This policy governs all aspects of employment, including selection, job assignment, compensation, discipline, termination, and access to benefits and training.

Any employees with questions or concerns about any type of discrimination in the workplace are encouraged to bring these issues to the attention of their immediate supervisor or the Director. Employees can raise concerns and make reports without fear of reprisal. Anyone found to be engaging in any type of unlawful discrimination will be subject to disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment.

LIBRARY PERSONNEL RECORDS POLICY, INCLUDING USE OF THE PERSONNEL RECORDS REQUEST FORM

1. A personnel file shall be established for each employee. The file shall contain all current and future references to the following materials:

- a. Application for employment
- b. Time sheets with sickday and vacation records
- c. Letters of reference
- d. Letters of recommendation and commendation
- e. Disposed disciplinary proceedings, if any

2. Access to the employee's personnel records shall be according to the following guidelines:

- a. The employee must fill out and submit the Personnel Records Request Form.
- b. The employer shall grant at least 2 inspection requests by an employee in a calendar year when requests are made at a reasonable interval, unless otherwise provided in a collective bargaining agreement.¹
- c. The designee will provide the employee the opportunity for inspection within 7 working days after the request or if the employer can reasonably show such deadline cannot be met, the employer shall have an additional 7 days.²
- d. The employee will inspect the personnel record at the employer's administrative office during normal working hours or at another time mutually convenient to the employer and employee.
- e. Inspection of records will be done under the supervision of an administrative staff member.
- f. Should the employee demonstrate his or her inability to inspect his or her personnel records in person, the employer will mail a copy of the specified records upon request.³
- g. The employee may copy material maintained in his or her personnel record. Payment for copying shall be based on actual costs.⁴
- h. The employee may not remove any part of his or her record from the file and may not remove any part of the record from the administrative office.⁵

i. Should the employee be involved in a current grievance proceeding against the employer, the employee may designate in writing a representative who has authority to inspect the records under the same rights as the employee.⁶

j. If the employee disagrees with any information contained in the record, a removal or correction of that information may be mutually agreed upon by the employer and employee. If an agreement cannot be reached, the employee may submit a written statement explaining his or her position. The employer will attach the employee's statement to the disputed portion of the record and the statement will be included whenever that record is released to a third party. Inclusion of any written statement attached to the disputed record in a personnel file without any further comment or action by the employer will not imply or create any presumption that the employer agrees with the statement's contents.⁷

k. The employer shall not gather or keep a record in an employee's personnel file of an employee's associations, political activities, publications, communications, or nonemployment activities, unless the employee submits the information or authorizes the employer in writing to keep such records; providing, however, that nothing herein shall be construed to prohibit the employer from gathering or keeping records concerning activities that occur on the employer's premises or during the employee's working hours which interfere with the performance of the employee's duties or the duties or activities of other employees, regardless of when and where occurring, which constitute criminal conduct or may reasonably be expected to harm the employer's property, operations, processes, or programs, or could, by the employee's actions, cause the employer financial liability.⁸

l. When the employer receives a written request for personnel records from a third party, the employer shall review the requested records and, before releasing them, delete disciplinary reports, letters of reprimand or other records of disciplinary actions which are more than four years old, unless the release is ordered to a party in a legal action or proceeding.⁹

Before the employer divulges disciplinary reports, letters of reprimand, or records of other disciplinary action which are less than four years old to a third party, to party who is party of the employer's organization, or to a party who is part of a labor organization representing the employee, the employer will provide the employee with written notice. The notice shall be mailed to the employee's last known address and will be mailed on or before the day the information is divulged to any of the aforementioned parties. No notice is required if the employee has specifically waived written notice as part of a written, signed employment application with another employer; the disclosure is ordered to a party in a legal action or arbitration; or information is requested by a government agency as a result of a claim or complaint by an employee, or as a result of a criminal investigation by such agency.

m. The right of an employee or employee's representative to inspect personnel records does not extend to¹¹:

- 1) Letters of reference for that employee
- 2) Any portion of a test document, except that the employee may see a cumulative total test score for either a section of or the entire test document.
- 3) Materials relating to the employer's staff planning, such as matters relating to the employer's development, expansion, closing or operational goals, where the materials relate to or affect more than one employee, provided, however, that this exception does not apply if such materials are, have been, or are intended to be used by the employer in determining an individual's qualifications for employment, promotion, transfer, or additional compensation, or in determining an individual's discharge or discipline.
- 4) Information of a personal nature about a person other than an employee if disclosure would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of the other person's privacy.
- 5) Records relevant to any other pending claim between the employer and employee which may be discovered in a judicial proceeding.
- 6) Investigatory or security records maintained by the employer to investigate criminal conduct by an employee or other activity by the employee which could reasonably be expected to harm the employer's property, operations, process, or programs, or could by the employee's activity cause the employer financial liability, unless and until the employer takes adverse personnel action based on information in such records.

HOURS AND SCHEDULES

Schedules and hours are set by the Library Director. They must fit within the boundaries of the salary guidelines in the budget and should reflect predicted patron use levels. Schedules shall be posted by the Director no later than one week prior to the calendar week before the schedule begins.

Time off is approved by the Library Director and dependent on the needs of the Library. Trading hours with another staff member is acceptable with the approval of the Director.

Employees are expected to arrive on time for the scheduled hours. Notify the Library Director at least one hour prior to your scheduled hours if you are unable to work due to illness or other emergency. Excessive absenteeism or tardiness can result in disciplinary action up to and including dismissal.

Adopted on May 2, 2013 by the RPLD Board of Trustees

3.02

Pay Periods

All employees are paid every two weeks on Thursday.

Adopted on May 2, 2013 by the RPLD Board of Trustees

3.03

COMPENSATION

The salary of a library employee is based upon ability, which is reflected in the job classification. Job classifications are:

- Library Director
- Youth Services Director
- Circulation Manager
- Adult Program Coordinator
- Bookkeeper
- Cataloger
- Tech Services
- Outreach Coordinator (homebound)
- Circulation Associate
- Youth Services Assistant
- Seasonal Assistant
- Page

(Refer to Job Descriptions). The minimum work week for a full-time employee is 38 hours. The position of Library Director is salaried, and that salary is set by the Board of Trustees. Salaried positions are exempt from both compensatory time and overtime policies.

Overtime Compensation: If an employee works over 40 hours per week, overtime compensation will be paid at one and one-half times the employee's regular rate of pay.

Performance related increases are applicable to employees after one (1) year of employment. Salary increases may reflect changes in the economy, although such changes are dependent upon the availability of funds. Other salary changes reflect performance and professional growth, and may be recommended after annual evaluations. All salary adjustments take effect July 1.

Adopted on May 2, 2013 by the RPLD Board of Trustees

3.04

Lunch Breaks

An employee who is scheduled to work 6 continuous hours or more shall be provided a meal period of 30 minutes. The meal period must be given to said employee no later than 5 hours after beginning work.

Employees under the age of 16 are entitled to a meal (lunch) period of at least 30 minutes if the employee is scheduled to work more than 5 consecutive hours. 820 ILCS 205/4.

A 10 minute break is allowed during a 4 hour work period.

Adopted on May 2, 2013 by the RPLD Board of Trustees

4.01

PROFESSIONAL CONDUCT

The Library is a public institution supported by taxation and thus belongs to the people. Therefore, the first duty of the library staff is service to the public. Each library patron should be provided prompt, friendly, courteous service.

Fellow staff members should be given the same courtesy. Personality conflicts and squabbling are inappropriate in the workplace and will not be tolerated. Conflicts not immediately resolved between involved parties will be mediated at once by the Library Director. Everyone is expected to get along in order that a congenial atmosphere in the workplace will be perpetuated.

The "public relations" of the Library included every personal contact and every telephone call. Individual staff members can increase community knowledge of the Library and its services and create a continually expanding network of friends for the Library.

Personal phone calls should be kept to a minimum. Every attempt should be made to use break or lunch time to conduct personal business.

Adopted on May 2, 2013 by the RPLD Board of Trustees

4.02

DRUG AND ALCOHOL FREE LIBRARY POLICY

The Rochester Public Library has long recognized that the non-medical use of controlled substances is hazardous to the health of the employees of the Library. Additionally, the irresponsible use of alcohol by employees is detrimental to the library environment. The illicit manufacture, use, possession, or distribution of controlled substances, look-alike drugs, drug paraphernalia, and the manufacture, use, possession, or distribution of alcoholic beverages, marijuana, and its derivatives as defined by Illinois and Federal statute, at any time, is not permitted at any library location.

“Library location” means in any library building, on any library premises, in any library-owned vehicle, or at any library-sponsored activity where patrons or employees are engaged in activities under the jurisdiction of the Library. This shall include any period of time when an employee is supervising students on behalf of a school district or is otherwise engaged in library business.

Any employee who violates the term of the Library’s drug and alcohol policy may be suspended or terminated pursuant to the rules and regulations of the Library and applicable state statutes. The Library may in its discretion refer incidents to appropriate legal authorities for prosecution when this policy is violated. Sanctions against employees shall be in accordance with prescribed library regulations and procedures. The Library’s employees, as a condition of their employment, agree to abide by the terms of this policy and to notify the Library, no later than five (5) days after a conviction, of any criminal drug or alcohol statute conviction for a violation occurring at a library location. The Library, if or when required by law, shall report such conviction to the appropriate authorities.

Adopted on May 2, 2013 by the RPLD Board of Trustees

4.03

COMPUTER AND E-MAIL USAGE

Computers, computer files, the e-mail system, and software furnished to employees are Rochester Public Library's property and are intended only for library use. Employees shall not use a password, access a file, or retrieve any stored communication without prior authorization. Employees shall not password protect e-mails or other communications, documents or files without prior authorization. Further, employees shall not disclose or use their e-mail addresses for any business purpose other than the business of the library. To ensure compliance with this policy, the library reserves the right to monitor computer and e-mail usage at its sole discretion and without notice.

The library strives to maintain a workplace free of harassment and sensitive to its employees. Therefore, the library requires that all use of the computers be professional and consistent with the library's business practices. The library prohibits the use of computers and the e-mail system in ways that are disruptive, offensive to others, or harmful to morale. For example, the display or transmission of sexually explicit images, messages, and cartoons is not allowed. Other such misuse includes, but is not limited to, ethnic slurs, racial comments, off-color jokes, or anything that may be construed as harassment or showing disrespect for others.

The library purchases and licenses the use of various computer software for commercial purposes and does not own the copyright to this software or its related documentation. Unless authorized by the software developer, the library does not have the right to reproduce such software for use on more than one computer. You may only use software on local area networks or on multiple machines according to the terms of the software license agreement. The library does not allow the illegal duplication of software and its related documentation.

No software program owned by individual employees or programs, software or files from the internet may be downloaded for use on a library computer without prior approval of the Library Director.

While employees may access the internet from their computer workstations, such access is for business purposes only and employees shall not access the internet during their work hours for other than the library's business. Any employee's access of the internet during an employee's break or lunch period or before or after hours shall strictly comply with this section and the social media use section of the Personnel Policy. Any employee posting on blogs or social networking sites shall be respectful of other staff and of the library. Disparagement, insubordination, harassment, discriminatory statements, etc. posted by an employee about other staff, patrons, or the library, whether done at the library or off-site, can subject the employee to discipline up to and including termination.

Employees should notify the Library Director or a member of the Board of Trustees upon learning of violations of this policy. Employees who violate this policy will be subject to disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment.

Social Media Use Policy

Social Media is defined as: blogs, other types of self-published online journals, and collaborative web-based discussion forums including, but not limited to, LinkedIn, Facebook, MySpace and Twitter.

Rules and Guidelines

I. General Rules and Guidelines

The following rules and guidelines apply to the use of social media, whether such use is for the Rochester Public Library on library time, for personal use during non-work time, outside the workplace or during working time while using Employer owned equipment. (Using Employer equipment to access social media sites for personal use is also governed by the Computer and E-mail Usage Policy. Employees should also refer to this policy before accessing such sites via the Employer's equipment). These rules and guidelines apply to all employees.

- 1.) Employees are prohibited from discussing confidential, work-related matters through the use of social media. Employees also have a duty to protect employees' home addresses and other personal information and the confidentiality of Rochester Public Library trade secrets, marketing lists, patron account information, strategic business plans, patron lists, financial information, business contracts, and other proprietary and nonpublic library information.
- 2.) Employees cannot use social media to harass, threaten, libel or slander, malign, defame, or discriminate against co-workers, managers, patrons, clients, vendors or suppliers, any organizations associated or doing business with the Rochester Public Library, or any members of the public, including website visitors who post comments. Rochester Public Library anti-harassment and EEO policies apply to use of social media in the workplace.
- 3.) This policy is not intended, nor shall it be applied, to restrict employees from discussing their wages, hours and working conditions.

II. Employer-Sponsored Social Media

Rochester Public Library's sponsored social media is used to: convey information about library products and services; advise patrons about library updates; obtain patron feedback; exchange ideas or trade insights about library trends; reach out to potential new markets; provide use and marketing support to raise awareness of Rochester Public Library's brand; issue or respond to breaking news, or respond to negative publicity; brainstorm with employees and patrons; and discuss library and department specific activities and events.

All such Rochester Public Library-related social media is subject to the following rules and guidelines, in addition to rules and guidelines set forth above:

- 1.) Only employees designated and authorized by the Rochester Public Library can prepare content for or delete, edit, or otherwise modify content on employer-sponsored social media.
- 2.) Employees cannot post any copyrighted information where written reprint permission is not obtained in advance.
- 3.) Designated employees are responsible for ensuring that the employer-sponsored social media conform to all applicable library rules and guidelines. These employees are authorized to remove immediately and without advance warning any content, including offensive content such as pornography, obscenities, profanity, and/or material that violates employer's EEO and/or anti-harassment policies.

4. Library employees who want to post comments in response to content must identify themselves as employees.

III. Personal Use of Social Media

The following rules and guidelines, in addition to the rules and guidelines set forth in section 1 above, apply to employee use of social media on the employee's personal time.

1.) Employees should abide by the Rochester Public Library's Computer and E-mail Usage Policy concerning personal use of the Rochester Public Library's computer and related equipment.

2.) Employees who utilize social media and choose to identify themselves as employees of the Rochester Public Library are strongly encouraged to state explicitly, clearly, and in a prominent place on the site that their views are their own and not those of the Rochester Public Library or of any person or organization affiliated or doing business with the Rochester Public Library.

3.) Employees cannot use the Rochester Public Library's logo or trademarks or the name, logo, or trademarks of any business partner, supplier, vendor, affiliate, or subsidiary on any personal blogs or other online sites unless their use is sponsored or otherwise sanctioned, approved, or maintained by the Rochester Public Library.

4.) Employees cannot post Rochester Public Library's copyrighted or confidential information or library-issued documents bearing Rochester Public Library's name, trademark, or logo.

5.) Employees cannot post photographs of library events, other employees, patrons or representatives engaged in the Rochester Public Library's business, or library products/services, unless employees have received Rochester Public Library's and/or subject patron's explicit permission.

6.) Employees cannot advertise or sell library products or services through social media.

IV. Employer Monitoring

Rochester Public Library reserves the right to monitor employees' use of social media including but not limited to statements/comments posted on the Internet, in blogs and other types of openly accessible forums, diaries, and personal and business discussion forums.

Employees should have no expectation of privacy while using library equipment and facilities for any purpose, including the use of social media. Rochester Public Library reserves the right to monitor, review, and block content that violates the Rochester Public Library's rules and guidelines.

V. Violations

Rochester Public Library will investigate and respond to all reports of violations of Rochester Public Library's rules and guidelines or related library policies or rules. Employees are urged to report any violations of this policy to the Library Director. A violation of this policy may result in discipline up to and including termination of employment.

Adopted on May 2, 2013 by the RPLD Board of Trustees

4.05

SEXUAL HARASSMENT

The Rochester Public Library strongly opposes sexual harassment in any form. Sexual harassment is against Library policy and is a violation of Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 as well as the Illinois Human Rights Act as amended on January 7, 1993. It is also unlawful to retaliate against a person who has lodged a complaint of sexual harassment.

A. WORK ENVIRONMENT

It is the policy of this Board that all employees have a right to work in an environment free of sexual harassment. Sexual harassment in the workplace includes unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, and other verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature when:

Submission to such conduct is made, either explicitly or implicitly, a term of condition of an individual's employment, submission to or rejection of such conduct by an individual is used as the basis for employment decisions affecting such individual, or such conduct has the purpose or effect of substantially interfering with the individual's work performance or creating an intimidating hostile or offensive working environment.

Any employee who believes that he or she is being subjected to sexual harassment is urged to immediately report such conduct to the Library Director in accordance with the Sexual Harassment Reporting Procedure.

B. LIBRARY EMPLOYEE/PATRON RELATIONSHIP

The Board affirms its commitment to ensuring an environment for all patrons free of sexual harassment. The Board views sexual harassment of patrons by Library employees as an abuse of authority and, therefore, such harassment will not be tolerated.

Sexual harassment of a patron by a Library employee means:

1. Any sexual advance by an employee toward a patron,
2. Any request by an employee to a patron for sexual favors,
3. Any acceptance by an employee of a sexual advance or request for sexual favors from a patron, or
4. Any conduct of a sexual nature by an employee directed toward a patron when (i) the patron's submission to or rejection of such conduct is either explicitly or implicitly a term or condition of a patron's participation in any library-sponsored activity, or (ii) such conduct has the purpose or effect on a patron of reasonable sensibilities, of creating an intimidating, hostile, or offensive library environment for the patron.

Any patron who suspects that she or he has encountered sexual harassment should report the incident to the Library Director or, if not immediately available, to her as soon as possible. Any employee who witnesses or has knowledge of sexual harassment by a Library employee against a patron shall immediately report it to the head librarian or to their immediate supervisor.

C. EXAMPLES

Sexual harassment prohibited by this policy includes verbal, non-verbal, or physical conduct. The terms "intimidating," "hostile," or "offensive" as used above include conduct which has the effect of humiliation, embarrassment, or discomfort.

Examples of verbal sexual harassment include: explicit sexual propositions, sexual innuendo, suggestive comments, foul or obscene language, insults of a sexual nature, and humor or jokes about sex or gender-specific traits.

Examples of non-verbal sexual harassment include: suggestive or insulting sounds, leering, whistling, obscene gestures, display of foul or obscene printed or visual material.

Examples of physical sexual harassment include: sexual touching, patting or pinching of a sexual nature, intentionally brushing the body, coerced sexual intercourse, and sexual assault.

D. DUTY TO REPORT SEXUAL HARASSMENT BY PATRONS TO FELLOW PATRONS

All Library employees have the affirmative duty to report incidents of sexual harassment perpetrated by patrons upon fellow patrons, whether witnessed firsthand or reported to them. Such incidents must be reported to the Library Director or to their immediate supervisor.

E. RETALIATION

It is a violation of this policy to retaliate or to take reprisal in any way against anyone who has articulated any concern about sexual harassment or discrimination against the person raising the concern or against another individual.

F. SEXUAL HARASSMENT REPORTING PROCEDURE

The following procedure shall be used by any patron or employee who suspects that he or she has been subjected to sexual harassment.

Step 1:

Reporting by Patrons

Any patron who suspects that he or she is the victim of sexual harassment by a Library employee or a fellow patron should report it to the Library Director as soon as possible.

Reporting by Employees

A complaint by a Library employee that sexual harassment has occurred shall first be presented to either the Library Director or to the employee's immediate supervisor. If the Library Director or supervisor is the subject of the complaint, then the complaint should be presented to the President of the Board.

Step 2:

If the alleged perpetrator of sexual harassment is a Library patron, he or she shall be subject to the consequences set forth in the Patron Conduct Policy. In all other cases, the Library Director shall meet with the complainant within three (3) days of receiving the complaint to discuss the allegations. If the complainant chooses to have a representative, then the Library Director may also have a representative; such meeting, however, shall be informal. The Library Director shall issue a written decision within five (5) days of the meeting.

Step 3:

If the complainant is not satisfied with the Library Director's decision, within five (5) days of the date of that decision, an appeal may be taken to the Board President or his designee (hereinafter the words "Board President" shall include designee).

The appeal shall be in writing and shall state the reasons for appealing the Library Director's decision. Within five (5) days of receiving the appeal, the Board President shall meet with the complainant, any representatives, and the Library Director to resolve the matter. The Board President shall issue a written decision within ten (10) days of this meeting. Any employee found to have sexually harassed a patron or another employee, or retaliated against a patron or employee who alleges sexual harassment, will be subject to discipline up to and including discharge.

Step 4:

If the complainant is not satisfied with the Board President's decision, then within ten (10) days, an appeal of that decision may be made to the entire Board of Library Trustees. Such an appeal shall be instituted by filing with the Secretary of the Board a statement setting forth the reasons for the appeal. Within twenty (20) days of receiving an appeal, the Board or a committee hereof shall meet with the complainant, the Library Director, and any representatives to discuss the allegations of discrimination. The hearing with the Board shall be informal, however, the complainant and the administration may present evidence, call, and cross-examine witnesses. The Board may ask questions of the complainant, the administration, and any witnesses. The rules of evidence shall not apply; however, hearsay evidence shall not be presented for proof of any ultimate facts.

Within ten (10) days after the hearing, the Board shall issue its written decision.

All hearings shall be held in private and at times convenient for the parties. In the event that the person designated to hear a complaint is the alleged offender, then the employee may immediately move to the next step of the procedure. At any step, the person hearing the complaint may conduct or direct such investigation as they deem appropriate, including obtaining a response from the alleged offender. There shall be no harassment or retaliation by any person involved in the process for any reason.

G. LEGAL RECOURSE, INVESTIGATIVE, AND COMPLAINT PROCESS AVAILABLE THROUGH THE ILLINOIS DEPARTMENT OF HUMAN RIGHTS AND HUMAN RIGHTS COMMISSION

Any Library Patron or employee may also use the legal recourse, investigative, and complaint process through the Illinois Department of Human Rights and Human Rights Commission.

The address and telephone number are:

Illinois Department of Human Rights
222 S. College, Rm. 101A
Springfield, IL 62700

4.06

USE OF PHONE AND MAIL SYSTEMS

Employees may be required to reimburse the Rochester Public Library for any charges resulting from their personal use of the telephone.

The use of Rochester Public Library-paid postage for personal correspondence is not permitted.

Adopted on May 2, 2013 by the RPLD Board of Trustees

4.7

Dress Code

The Rochester Public Library District Dress Code is required so all staff present a professional image to the public. It is important that the public have confidence in the staff and the staff members have confidence/pride in themselves when transacting library business. To help present this image and foster public confidence, staff members must dress appropriately for their work assignment. Library Director will discuss inappropriate dress with individual staff members.

Guidelines

Staff will wear clean and well-maintained attire appropriate to the type of work they do. Shoes are required and must also be well-maintained. Good grooming is required. In compliance with this policy, the following are examples of unacceptable attire:

- torn, unhemmed, patched/faded clothing
- halter tops, tube tops, muscle shirts, or low cut blouses
- strapless sun dresses
- shorts or short dresses
- shirts with slogans or large-letter advertising (Other than Library, Book or Program related)
- sweatsuits/warm-up suits; sweat pants/low riding pants
- blue jeans (Monday – Thursday). Blue jeans are allowed on Friday and Saturday and jean style pants or jeans in other colors are acceptable all week, assuming they meet all the other criteria.

Because of varied work assignments and working conditions, it is not practical to establish specific and absolute criteria as to what is or is not appropriate dress. Some activities, such as cleaning days, outside activities, or craft projects, may call for variations from the dress code and blue jeans are allowed.

Nametags should be worn when on duty. Nametags are provided by the Rochester Public Library District.

Failure to follow these standards will result in disciplinary action.

Adopted on May 2, 2013 by the RPLD Board of Trustees

5.01 PERFORMANCE AND EVALUATION

The purpose of a performance evaluation is to provide staff with feedback concerning their execution of job-related duties. Performance evaluations for all employees will be conducted a minimum of once a year. All performance evaluations will be kept in the strictest of confidence and in a safe and secure area in the library.

Staff Evaluations

Staff self-evaluations by all employees will be conducted a minimum of once each year in February on the prescribed form. The self-evaluations will be reviewed with the Director. The Director and the employee will sign the completed self-evaluation form, which will be filed in the employees personnel file.

The Director will conduct annual performance evaluations of staff members in March. The Director will discuss the evaluation with each staff member. The Director and the staff member will sign the evaluation form and the staff member may include written comments on the current evaluation.

Staff members will be evaluated by the Director based upon performance of the duties listed in their respective job descriptions. Review of new employees will be conducted after three months of employment.

A staff member may institute grievance procedures if a disagreement should arise concerning a performance evaluation. Grievances should be submitted in writing to the Board for consideration.

Director Evaluation

The Personnel Committee is responsible for preparing the Director's written evaluation and discussing it with the Director two times each year.

The President will distribute the evaluation form to each Trustee at the November Board meeting for the mid-year evaluation and at the May Board meeting for the end-of-year evaluation. Within two weeks of receiving the evaluation form, each Trustee will complete it and return it to the President.

The Personnel Committee will meet after the President receives all of the Trustee individual evaluation forms to prepare a single evaluation form. The Personnel Committee will complete the single evaluation form prior to the December and June Board meetings.

At the December and June Board meetings, the Personnel Committee will present the completed evaluation to all Trustees in closed session to receive any final comments on the evaluation. The Personnel Committee may revise the evaluation based on the comments received from the Board.

The Personnel Committee will discuss the evaluation with the Director. The President, a second Trustee on the Personnel Committee, and the Director, will each sign the evaluation form. Copies of the signed evaluation will be provided to the Director and the Secretary. The Secretary is responsible for maintaining the official copy of the evaluation.

6. BENEFITS

Health insurance, including major medical benefits, will be paid on an individual basis for full-time library employees, with provision made for family coverage to be available at the employee's expense. Dental and vision insurance will be made available through the Library at the employee's expense.

On the job accidents will be covered by worker's compensation, as required by statute.

All employees are covered by Social Security.

All employees with 1000 hours or more per year are entitled to IMRF (Illinois Municipal Retirement Fund) coverage.

An employee who leaves the employment of the RPLD and wishes to continue his/her health insurance coverage may do so upon request at his or her own expense in accordance with current COBRA legislation. Individual circumstances concerning the termination of employment under the COBRA law determine the length of time that the former employee will be allowed to continue this coverage.

VACATION AND LEAVE

Vacation: An employee must have worked for the Library for 1 year before becoming eligible for vacation. Full-time employees receive 10 days vacation with pay after 1 year of service. After 5 years of employment, they receive 15 days of vacation with pay, and 20 days of paid vacation after 10 years of service. After one year of service, part-time employees who work 18 hours or more per week are entitled to the equivalent hours per week as paid vacation. After 5 years of employment, they receive equivalent hours per week as paid vacation for 2 weeks and after 10 years of service equivalent hours per week as paid vacation for 3 weeks. Up to 50% of an employee's allotted vacation time may be carried over until the end of the following fiscal year.

Sick Leave: Full-time employees are entitled to 12 paid sick days per year, accumulating to 120 working days for full-time employees. Part-time employees who work 18 hours or more per week are entitled to 6 paid sick days per year, accumulating up to 60 working days. Payment for unused sick leave will not be made.

Holidays: The Library will be closed on July 4th, Labor Day, Thanksgiving, the day after Thanksgiving, Christmas Eve Day, Christmas Day, New Year's Eve Day, New Year's Day, Memorial Day, and any other days as approved annually by the Library Board. These are paid holidays for those employees normally scheduled to work.

Personal Leave: Two days of personal leave with pay per year are available for full-time employees. One day of personal leave – equivalent to the number of hours normally worked the day for which it is used – with pay per year is available for part-time employees who work 18 hours or more per week. Unused leave will not accumulate.

Professional and Educational Leave: Professional or educational leave of up to 1 year for full-time employees may be granted without pay if a satisfactory replacement can be secured.

Jury Duty: Staff members are required to serve on juries as are other citizens. The Library will pay the staff member his or her regular salary during such jury service. If payment is received for jury duty, it will then be turned over to the Library.

Emergency Leave: Unpaid emergency leaves may be granted on an individual basis as approved by the Board.

Maternity or Paternity Leave: Accrued sick leave and vacation may be used during pregnancy and childbirth. Leaves of absence without pay may be used instead of or in addition to sick leave and vacation time as approved by the Board.

Military Leave: Employees who are enlisted in the military service, including the ready reserves and the National Guard, will be entitled to all rights and benefits afforded by federal law, Illinois law, and an applicable contract. The Rochester Public Library at all times will comply with the laws applicable to those on military leave.

Funeral Leave: Annually, full-time employees may take up to three days leave with pay in the case of a death in the immediate family. Immediate family includes grandparents, parents, guardians, siblings, spouse, or child, inclusive of natural-born, adoptive or step-.

In the case of other family members (aunt, uncle, niece, nephew), one day of paid leave will be allowed to full-time employees. Other requests for funeral leave will be considered on an individual basis by the Director.

8.0 STAFF DEVELOPMENT

The RPLD recognizes and supports the importance of staff development activities, which helps us to provide the best programs and services to our patrons. Ensuring the staff is up-to-date on state of the practice library services is critical to make certain the library remains a relevant institution that is serving community needs. The Board approves the annual budget, which includes a line item for staff development activities.

The Library Director is responsible for managing this budget, identifying staff development activities for the Fiscal Year, and determining which staff will attend. Staff must receive prior approval from the Library Director before participating in an activity that may incur costs to the staff development budget.

The Library Director may use staff development funds to obtain institutional memberships to library organizations. These organizations serve to provide learning and continuing education opportunities for library staff as well as grant funding. The organizations that the library may become members of include, but are not limited to, Illinois Library Association, American Library Association, Public Library Association, Young Adult Library Services Association, and the Association for Library Service for Children. It is at the Library Director's discretion which institutional memberships the library will join, subject to budgetary constraints.

Staff development activities are available through in-service workshops, conference attendance, giving presentations to local groups, webinars, and participating on library affiliated working groups.

Trustees may also be reimbursed consistent with this policy for conference attendance.

8.1 TRAVEL POLICY

The travel reimbursement process is available to library staff to obtain reimbursement for authorized and allowable out-of-pocket expenses while on Library business. Allowable expenses included transportation, meals, lodging, and other costs incidental to traveling such as taxi fares, parking fees, and tolls.

The Library Director is responsible for authorizing travel for library staff and trustees, and the bookkeeper is responsible for reviewing travel reimbursement forms and preparing payments for reimbursement. In limited circumstances, described below, Board authorization is required for some travel expenses prior to those costs being incurred.

Meals and Incidental Expenses

Meals and Incidental Expenses (M&IE) include the cost for meals, tips and fees for food and luggage handling type services. The traveler is eligible for M&IE for travel that includes overnight accommodations outside of Sangamon County. Receipts are not required for the traveler to claim and receive the full M&IE amount.

The M&IE daily allowance is $33.00. This amount is based on the State of Illinois per diem rate of $28.00 per day plus $5.00 per day for incidental expenses. The M&IE is broken down as follows:

Total	Breakfast	Lunch	Dinner	Incidental Expenses
$33.00	$5.50	$5.50	$17.00	$5.00

The traveler is allowed to claim $\frac{3}{4}$ of the M&IE amount for travel on the days of departure and return, and the full M&IE amount for travel for any days in between. If a meal is provided as part of a registration fee, then that amount must be excluded from the total M&IE amount. For example, if dinner is included in the registration fee, then \$17.00 would need to be excluded from the M&IE amount claimed.

Mileage

On occasion, staff may be asked to use their personal vehicles for library business, such as travel to conferences, delivering library materials, or making purchases for the library. Subject to prior approval by the Library Director, travel by personal vehicle will be reimbursed at the current IRS mileage rate.

Hotel

Most overnight stays for library staff occur when participating in annual library conferences, and multiple staff attend the same conference. To maximize Library staff development budget, staff are expected to share a room with another staff member. If a staff member prefers to not share a room, then they will be expected to pay $\frac{1}{2}$ of the cost of the hotel room.

The Library will directly pay for the hotel room lodging fees and taxes using the Library credit card; however, at check-in, staff must present their personal credit card to the hotel to be used for any incidental expenses incurred during their hotel stay (e.g., personal items, room service, on-demand movies, phone calls, etc.)

The original hotel receipts will be given to the bookkeeper for the Library records.

Conference Registration

Conference attendance must be approved by the Library Director. Registration fees may be paid for directly by the Library or if the registration is paid for by the employee, then the registration receipt must be attached to the travel reimbursement form.

Miscellaneous

The RPLD will reimburse for tolls, parking, taxi, business calls, and other travel related expenses. Each expense must be listed separately and receipts provided.

Expenses Requiring Prior Authorization by the Board

The following travel expenses are reimbursable, only if prior approval is given by the Board:

- Airfare
- Out-of-State Travel
- Rental Car
- Hotel rooms exceeding $200 per night per person

Preparing and Processing Travel Expense Report

Within one week after returning from travel eligible for reimbursement, the traveler must forward a Travel Expense Report, including all appropriate receipts, to the Library Director and request approval. The Library Director will complete an initial review of the form, and if it is in order, send it to the bookkeeper for final review and payment processing. If the form is not in order, the Library Director will return the form to the traveler and identify corrections that must be made to the form or if additional documentation of expenses is required.

The bookkeeper will complete the final review of the form and receipts and verify that the travel expense form and supporting documentation is in order before processing the payment. Reimbursements will be paid as soon as practicable after the travel expense form is deemed acceptable by the Library Director and the bookkeeper.

8.2 IN-SERVICE WORKSHOPS

The Library Director may hold in-service workshops or training sessions for employees. At the Library Director's discretion, snacks or meals may be provided if it is determined it is for the convenience of the library, and the expense is considered reasonable.

DISCIPLINE

Policy: It is the policy of the Rochester Public Library District that employee discipline be positive in nature in an effort to correct unacceptable conduct and work productivity. This policy does not require reprimands or attempts at corrective action prior to the discharge or suspension of an employee who commits a serious offense. There may be circumstances when one or more steps are bypassed.

The Rochester Public Library District Grievance Policy provides all employees a mechanism to appeal any disciplinary action.

The levels of discipline are:

Verbal warning

Written reprimand

Suspension

Discharge

Verbal Warning:

A verbal warning may be issued to an employee upon the first offense. The Director must document the warning with a notation to be placed into the employees personnel file. Upon corrective action by the employee, to the satisfaction of the Director, the notation will be removed from the employees personnel file. The President of the Board of Trustees, at the direction of the Board, may impose the same procedures to the Library Director.

Written Reprimand:

A written reprimand for any offense may be issued to an employee by the Library Director. A written reprimand of the Library Director may be issued by the President of the Board of Trustees at the direction of the Board. The written reprimand shall state clearly the offense and the reason for the reprimand. A copy shall be retained in the employee's personnel file.

Suspension:

An employee may be suspended from employment status without pay for a serious offense, for a period not to exceed thirty days. A suspension may be imposed by the Library Director in consultation with the Board. The Board may suspend the Library Director for a serious offense, and that suspension period shall not exceed thirty days without pay. The disciplined employee shall receive a copy of the notice stating the reason for the suspension, and a copy of the notice shall be retained in the employee's personnel file.

Discharge:

An employee may be discharged without cause during the probationary period. An employee may be discharged with cause for a serious offense. Notice of discharge by the Board, stating the reason for the discharge and its effective date, shall be served upon the employee in person or by certified mail addressed to the employee's last known address. A copy of the notice shall be retained in the employee's personnel file.

Progressive Discipline Where Possible

Progressive discipline means that, with respect to most disciplinary problems, these steps will normally be followed: a first offense may call for a verbal warning; a next occurrence of the same or related offense may be followed by a written reprimand; the third occurrence of the same or related offense may lead to a suspension or discharge of employment. The Director may decide to repeat any of the steps listed above. By using progressive discipline, we hope that most employee problems can be corrected at an early stage, benefiting both the employee and the Rochester Public Library.

Written reprimands will be signed by the Director and added to the employee's personnel file. The employee will also be asked to sign the warning before it is added to his/her personnel file. The employee's signature simply indicates that he or she has read the warning. The employee may submit his/her own written statement to be added to the personnel file. The President of the Board of Trustees, at the direction of the Board, may impose the same procedures for Progressive Discipline to the Library Director.

Exceptions to Progressive Discipline

Rochester Public Library recognizes that there are certain types of behavior that are serious enough to justify either a suspension, or, in extreme situations, termination of employment, without going through the usual progressive discipline steps. Examples of such behavior include, but are not limited to, acts or omissions which (1) constitute gross insubordination, (2) endanger the health and safety of others, (3) significantly disrupt the operations of the library, or (4) pose a significant threat to the property of the library.

RESIGNATION

To prevent the interruption of public service and the overburdening of other staff members, all employees are requested to give advance notice of resignation as follows:

Full-time employees: At least 30 days notice.
Part-time employees: At least 2 weeks' notice

GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE POLICY

Any employee having a complaint is to bring it to the attention of her/his supervisor or the Director. Contractual employee(s) are exempt from this policy. If the problem is not handled to the employee's satisfaction, it may be brought to the attention of the President of the Board of Library Trustees following these procedures:

Initial Procedure:

Upon a problem or complaint, the employee should promptly contact the supervisor, who shall confer with the Director.

If the problem is not settled or resolved, or if the employee does not have a supervisor other than the Director, the employee shall promptly contact the Director.

The Director appeals directly to the Board.

1. Problems or complaints relating to the Director may be brought to the attention of the President of the Board of Trustees.
2. All complaints brought to the attention of the Director or the President of the Board of Trustees must be submitted in writing and shall contain the following information:
 - a. Date and time of incident
 - b. Detailed description of incident(s), including date and time of incident(s) and all subsequent actions
 - c. Written complaint must be signed and dated by the employee upon submission.

All complaints which are submitted to the Director or the President of the Board of Trustees shall be held in strictest of confidence.

Appeal Procedure:

After the initial channels have been followed without satisfactory results, then a formal written statement by the employee may be filed with the President of the Board of Trustees in the following prescribed form:

Statement of problem

3. Reply by the person(s) involved
4. Action taken at the conclusion of each prior step of the procedure
5. Statement of each action signed by the appropriate persons

Timetable:

Each problem should be initiated, heard, and resolved within as short a period of time as possible according to the nature or severity of the problem and the availability of essential personnel.

Most complaints or problems should be settled within 30 working days after initiation. In all matters, the decision of the Board of Library Trustees shall be final and non-reviewable.

If the matter involved discipline by either suspension or termination and the employee is reinstated by the Board of Library Trustees' decision, all benefits, pay, and status lost due to suspension or termination will also be reinstated to the employee's credit.

The decision of the Library Board of Trustees is final.
