

Conflict of Interest Policy

Rochester Public Library District Prohibiting Trustees and Employees From Selling Personal Items or Goods During Library Events

No trustee, officer, or employee shall offer for sale any personal items, products or goods for personal gain, or be financially interested (directly or indirectly) in any such sales, on Library grounds and/or during any Library run or organized event on or off Library grounds including, but not limited to, a Farmers Market or Fall Festival.

Adopted: November 2021